

Summary

This sermon explores the concept of Jesus's last will and testament, emphasizing how believers are heirs to God's kingdom through Christ's death and resurrection. The pastor explains that while everyone leaves a legacy, Jesus left the greatest inheritance possible - redemption, forgiveness, salvation, and eternal life. Unlike typical wills that require someone else to execute them after death, Jesus uniquely serves as both the testator who died and the executor who rose again to ensure His promises are fulfilled. The message encourages believers, especially young people, to live as heirs of God's kingdom rather than spiritually impoverished, recognizing their true worth and inheritance in Christ.

Intro Prayer

Gracious Father, we thank You for gathering us together today to study Your Word. As we dive into this discussion about the incredible inheritance You have given us through Jesus Christ, we ask that You open our hearts and minds to receive what You want to teach us. Help us to be honest with ourselves and with each other as we explore what it means to be heirs of Your kingdom. Guide our conversation and let Your Spirit move among us. In Jesus's name we pray, Amen.

Ice Breaker

What's the most meaningful item you've inherited or would want to inherit from a family member, and why is it special to you?

Key Verses

1. Hebrews 9:15
2. Hebrews 9:16
3. Hebrews 9:17
4. Jeremiah 31:34

Questions

1. How does understanding that Jesus is both the testator and executor of His own will change your perspective on His sacrifice?
2. The pastor mentioned that everyone leaves a legacy. What kind of legacy are you building right now in your daily life?
3. What does it mean to you personally that your name is written in Jesus's will as an heir of God?
4. The sermon states that Jesus is 'better' than anything the world offers. What are some things the world promises that you've been tempted to chase instead of Christ?

5. How should knowing you're spiritually wealthy change the way you handle life's difficulties and challenges?
6. The pastor asked, 'Am I living like an heir to the kingdom of God, or is my lifestyle more aligned to the world?' How would you honestly answer this question?
7. What are some practical ways we can live as heirs rather than as 'spiritually broke' people?
8. How can young people today build a legacy of faithfulness to Jesus Christ in a world that values popularity and social media presence?

Life Application

This week, identify one area of your life where you've been living like you're 'spiritually broke' instead of as an heir of God. Make a specific plan to change your mindset and actions in that area, remembering that your worth and inheritance come from Christ, not from worldly achievements or possessions.

Key Takeaways

1. Everyone leaves a legacy, but Jesus left the greatest inheritance possible through His death and resurrection
2. Jesus uniquely serves as both the testator who wrote the will and the executor who ensures its promises are fulfilled
3. Believers are heirs of God with an inheritance that includes redemption, forgiveness, salvation, and eternal life
4. Our worth and value are determined by Christ's sacrifice, not by worldly standards of success or popularity
5. We should live as heirs of the kingdom, not as spiritually impoverished people, demonstrating faith over fear

Ending Prayer

Heavenly Father, thank You for the incredible inheritance You have given us through Your Son Jesus Christ. Help us to truly grasp the magnitude of what it means to be heirs of Your kingdom. As we go from this place, may we live with the confidence and joy that comes from knowing our names are written in Your will. Help us to build legacies of faithfulness and to remember that our worth comes from You alone. Thank You for the cross, thank You for the empty tomb, and thank You that because He lives, we have hope. In Jesus's precious name, Amen.
